Red Cross Volunteers Honored

The Murray-Calloway County Hospital commissioners and administrator honored the Red Cross uniformed volunteers with an awards dinner at the Holiday Inn last night.

Twenty-nine women were recognized for a total of 109 years of community service. During 1975 the group has donated 3,089 hours in X-ray, diet, mail, information desk, and the convalescent ward. Two new programs were initiated, assisting in the blood bank and furnishing current magazines to patients and visitors.

Expression of thanks were made by James Garrison, chairman of the hospital board, and Stuart Poston, hospital administrator. Jean Blankenship, executive director of the local Red Cross chapter recognized the following for their service: Lucille Thurman, Jacquelyn Overbey, Virginia Moore, Dorothy Kernell, Phyllis Kain, Desiree Hosick, and Trilby Cunningham, new volunteers; Anne Wood, and Irene Curry, 1 year; Mabel Gallagher, Simone Taylor, Hazel Tarry, Esther Sigmon, 2 years; Ruby Harrel, Betty Shepherd, Lorraine Settimo, and Elizabeth Marshall, 3 years; Frances Whittle, 4 years; Mary Moyer, Marjorie Kipp, Sally Henson, and Alberta Griffith, 5 years; Irma LaFollette and Deanie Chrisman, 6 years; June Lockhart, Lillian Graves and Kathryn Glover, 8 years; Clyzell Falwell, 13 years, and Della Taylor, 15 years.

Hospital commissioners attending were Gil Hopson, James Rudy Albritton, Graham Feltner, Hazel Beale, Robert O. Miller, and Garrison. Also included were spouses or guests of the commissioners and volunteers.

Health Department Cancels Regularly Scheduled Clinic

The regular Thursday clinic at the Calloway County Health Center has been cancelled for Thursday, December 4, according to R. L. Cooper, administrative assistant.

Cooper said the clinic has been cancelled due to the construction work now going on in the clinic areas.

Clinics will resume again on Tuesday, December 9, and Thursday, December 11, unless otherwise notified, Cooper said.

Any person having an emergency due to the cancellation of the Thursday clinic is asked to call the office, 753-3381, for service, the administrative assistant said.

Spectacular Leap In Auto Sales Figures Expected For Month

DETROIT (AP) — Domestic car sales in November were expected to show a spectacular 38 per cent jump from the sorely depressed levels of a year ago, when the industry was mired in the depths of recession.

It would be the largest year-to-year sales gain for a month in at least three years, according to industry analysts who credit the sharp increase to an accelerated recovery that started this fall.

Sales a year ago were the worst for a November in 15 years.

All four U.S. car makers and distributors for 21 foreign cars report their November sales figures today.

Analysts predict sales of imports also will be up — 18 per cent from a weak year-earlier performance. A stronger showing by the domestic firms would hold foreign makers to a traditional 14 per cent of the total U.S. new-car market. The imports have taken a record 19.3 per cent of the 1975 market through October.

Analysts estimated the domestic companies sold 672,000 cars in 24 selling days in November compared with 505,511 in 25 days a year ago. The daily selling rate of 28,653 last month would be up 38 per cent from 20,220 last year.

With the exception of a robust daily rate of 28,653 in October, the November selling tempo would be the strongest for the American companies in 18 months.

It also would give the domestic industry a seasonally adjusted annual sales rate of 8 million cars, the highest since September 1974. The annual rate climbed to 7.8 million in October after falling to 5.7 million in November 1974.

Jaycees To Host Tiger Grid Team

The Murray-Calloway County Jaycees will host the 1975 Murray High School football squad at their annual banquet Monday, Dec. 8, at 6:30 p. m. at the Colonial House Smorgasbord.

Guest speaker for the occasion will be Murray State football coach Bill Furgerson.

Tickets for the event will be on sale at the door at $4 per plate. Additional information may be obtained by contacting Jerry McCoy at 753-5940 or Ted Delaney, Jr. at 753-8200.

People Expect 'Ruthless Examination' Of State Programs, Legislators Told

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — State Rep. Joe Clarke has told his colleagues that the people expect them to "ruthlessly examine every state program" for its economical worth.

Clarke heads both the Interim Appropriations and Revenue Committee and a special legislative committee which is writing its own budget for the next biennium.

In the closing session Tuesday at the pre-legislative conference at Kentucky Dam Village State Park, the Danville Democrat said the General Assembly has "defaulted in oversight" of state expenditures.

If the lawmakers are not watchful, he said, "we will reap not only negative results, but also pay the political price."

One trouble, the representative indicated, is that the emphasis has been on new programs rather than performance. "We've been building a better bill factory," he said.

Clarke suggested a ban on legislation in any area until an existing program in the area is evaluated.

He also proposed consideration of the Wisconsin plan, under which the legislature appropriates money on a contract basis — an agency promises a result, receives the money and must produce or it gets no more.

Clarke said the idea is sound, though Kentucky is not geared up to measure production.

"It has been hard for us to even learn an agency's mission and the size of its problem," the committee chairman said.

Clarke's special committee has been criticized by the Kentucky Education Association for not meeting its demand that pay for Kentucky teachers be raised to the levels received by teachers in surrounding states.

But Clarke said parity with surrounding states is not fair, because Ohio, Indiana and Illinois are more prosperous than Kentucky and able to contribute more to education. He said that is why the committee recommended parity with South-eastern states instead.

Furthermore, he said, "some of us feel that equalization of educational opportunity is the first priority." Otherwise, he said, additional funding would merely continue to create disparities among districts.

Clarke said his committee is trying to suggest enough educational expenditures not only to raise teachers' pay but also to see that all districts have the same amount to spend for schools.

This is the first time that legislators have decided, in effect, to write their own budget for the next two fiscal years. The governor's recommended budget is usually approved by the General Assembly.

Clarke said the legislature's plan is backed by a sound fiscal analysis staff, and that the General Assembly is offering constructive alternatives to the executive branch's budget.

White House Reports 'Significant Talks Between Ford And Hsiao-ping

PEKING (AP) — President Ford and China's acting premier held a significant talk "covering a wide range of international issues" today, the White House reported.

It was the second business meeting between the visiting American leader and First Vice Premier Teng Hsiao-ping. The White House said the session on the third day of Ford's five-day visit to China lasted 2½ hours, half an hour longer than their first meeting on Tuesday.

Bills Rescinding ERA And Car Usage Tax Prefiled

Rep. Kenneth Imes of Murray, Rep. Johnny Boatwright of Paducah, and Rep. Ward Brooks Burnette of Fulton prefiled two bills Monday to the Legislative Research commission.

One of these bills was to rescind the ERA amendment which was passed by the Kentucky Legislature in 1972. Imes responded to questions on the ERA

"Significant" was also the word which Ford as well as the Chinese used to describe the President's talk Tuesday with Chairman Mao Tse-tung.

"It was a significant conversation," the President told newsmen. "It covered a very wide range of matters involving the international scene as well as our bilateral relations."

Neither the President nor other sources gave any information about what the 81-year-old Chinese leader discussed. But it was assumed that he emphasized his government's fear that Soviet-American detente is being construed by Moscow as a green light for Soviet expansion in Asia.

Mao made small talk with Ford, his wife and daughter and seven American officials for 15 minutes, then sat down for an hour and 35 minutes of discussion with the President, Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger and three of their aides. A Chinese communiqué said they had "earnest and significant discussions... on wide-ranging issues in a friendly atmosphere."

Mrs. Ford told newsmen Mao's eyes "lighted up quite brightly" when he saw the Ford's 18-year-old daughter, Susan. But a color film of the meeting televised in Peking today showed that Mao gave his biggest welcome to Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger, whom he had met three times previously.

When he said good-bye, Mao again shook Kissinger's hand demonstratively and held it much longer than he did those of Ford or the three other American officials who sat in on the talk.

Imes, Boatwright, and Burnette also introduced a bill that will do away with the car usage tax that imposes a tax on the sticker price of a new automobile. The new bill they have introduced will only be a tax charged on the actual price paid for the automobile minus the trade-in.

Imes said he believes the car usage tax was the most unfair tax in the state of Kentucky and also said that the seven million dollars that this tax brings into the state budget would not be lost because this new bill will encourage the sale of more automobiles in Kentucky and as a result will bring in more tax money.

State Senator Richard Wisenberger had indicated that he would prefile a usage tax bill to the senate, but items dealing in revenue can only be introduced in the house, said Imes.

Bill Extending Tax Cuts Heads For House Floor

WASHINGTON (AP) — The bill to extend this year's tax cut heads for action on the House floor where liberals will attempt to end some tax advantages, including the so-called "Perot amendment."

The House is expected to send the bill to the Senate tonight or Thursday. Both chambers face time pressures to finish the tax-cut extension before adjourning for Christmas either Dec. 12 or Dec. 19 because the tax cuts now in effect expire Dec. 31.

Internal Revenue Service Commissioner Donald C. Alexander said Tuesday the government will require employers to increase the amount of taxes withheld from workers' paychecks after Dec. 31 if no tax-cut extension has been approved. He ruled out any temporary administrative extension of current tax rates.

The tax-cut bill faces a veto by President Ford, who has said he would send back any bill that fails to tie spending cuts to the tax cut. Such a link was rejected by the House Ways and Means Committee.

Regardless of any tax-revision provisions the House adopts, Sen. Russell Long, D-La., chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, which must take up the measure in the Senate, has indicated he plans to strip the bill of all but a simple extension of the tax cuts because there is no time left this year to consider revisions.

In a final pitch for House votes for the basic bill, Rep. Al Ullman, D-Ore., chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, said failure today to sustain the proposed plan of action on some major amendments "could well so prolong the bill's consideration by the House that a tax increase of $1 billion a month will occur on Jan. 1 and our whole effort to achieve meaningful tax reform will be undermined."

The proposed plan of action, as recommended by the House Rules Committee, will allow some amendments to be made from the floor of the House, a step rarely taken because Ways and Means tax legislation usually is offered to the floor only for approval or disapproval. Amendments are frowned upon because of the complexity of the legislation and the economic issues involved.

However, this time the committee's leadership sought to permit some amendments designed to eliminate some tax advantages. One of the targets is expected to be the committee-approved provision that would enable large investors to recoup some of their losses.

The Wall Street Journal has said Texas businessman H. Ross Perot would gain about $15 million in tax refunds if the provision, which was drafted by Perot's lawyer, were enacted. The newspaper also noted that Perot had contributed about $27,000 to the campaigns of 12 members of the 37-person committee.

Arson Thought Possible Cause Of Fire In LBL

The Federal Bureau of Investigation is looking into the possibility of arson in a fire that burned about 225 acres of land in the Land Between the Lakes area last Saturday.

The fire was sighted at about 1:30 p.m., and two state fire-fighting crews contained the fire by seven p.m., and it had burned out by 9:30. The location of the burned area was in the northern part of the LBL, east of Highway 58, and a few miles south of Eddyville Ferry Lake Access Area on Lake Barkley. About half the burned area was brushland.

A TVA official asked that persons using the area be careful with fire during their visits to the LBL. TVA has contracts with both the state of Kentucky and Tennessee for the detection and suppression of fires, and any signs of burning should be reported to the Kentucky or Tennessee Division of Forestry or to one of the information points in the LBL.

Fires may be built in grills and fireplaces in developed campgrounds and picnic areas. All other fires or acts creating fires are prohibited in the federal area. Anyone apprehended setting a wild fire in the LBL will be prosecuted in accordance with respective state and federal laws. During periods of extreme fire danger, all open-air fires may be prohibited, the spokesman said.

Post Office To Keep Windows Open Saturdays

The Murray Postoffice stamp window will remain open on Saturdays until 4:30 p.m. until Christmas, according to Cleo Sykes, assistant Murray Postmaster.

Sykes said the window will be open from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. weekdays and from 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. on Saturdays for the mailing of packages and buying of stamps.

Postoffice officials urge the public to mail cards and packages early to avoid the last minute rush.

Former State Officials To Be Arraigned Dec. 15

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Two former top state Democratic Party officials will be arraigned Dec. 15 on charges of conspiracy in connection with an alleged 1972 highway appraisal kickback scheme.

Former Highway Commissioner Charles Pryor and former state Democratic Committee Executive Director Herschel Taylor will be arraigned in U.S. District Court in Lexington.

An indictment returned by a federal grand jury in Lexington charged that Pryor, highway commissioner and later finance commissioner in the Democratic administration of Gov. Wendell Ford, conspired with Taylor and "persons unknown" to divert federal highway funds.

The indictment said Pryor and Taylor conspired to thwart the intent of the Federal Aid Highway Act by "diverting" funds intended for highway appraisal jobs "to the Kentucky State Democratic Committee and persons unknown."

According to the indictment, Pryor and others would supply Taylor with a list of persons chosen to appraise land for right-of-way acquisition, and Taylor would ask those on the list for "kickbacks" from the fees for the appraisal work.

Those who wouldn't agree to give part of their fees back to the party wouldn't receive appraisal contracts, the indictment charged.

Indian Faith: Their Church Is the World And Worship Is Free

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My mother died in a hospital a year ago, and one thing still bothers me. I wish all those ministers and priests who go around to visit the sick would not tell them they should prepare to meet their God.

This happened to my mother, and she said she had no idea she was going to die. She did, of course, but I just know that had it not been for the minister's visits, my mother would have lived longer. She just gave up hope.

In the first place, the minister shouldn't even have visited my mother because she didn't belong to his church. She was an American Indian and didn't belong to ANY church. We Indians believe that our church is the whole world. In all Good Books, it says, "The Lord created heaven and earth," so we worship any time, any place—not in a building, only once a week. And there is never a collection plate. Worship is free.

If you think this will help people to understand the faith of the American Indians, please put this in your column. Thank you.

JIMMY LITTLE TURTLE
HARRISBURG, PA.

DEAR JIMMY: I do and I will. Thank you for writing.

DEAR ABBY: My fiancé and I are planning our wedding for next spring. All of those I've selected for my bridesmaids have accepted. My problem: Two of the girls are very overweight.

After attending a wedding not long ago where four bridesmaids were overweight and four were slim, I decided I didn't want these heavy girls to be in my wedding. The procession was terrible. Fat, skinny, fat, skinny, fat, skinny and finally fat, skinny.

I just can't let my fat friends ruin my wedding. I know I should have thought of it before I asked them, but I didn't.

Abby, this will be hard for me since we've all grown up together. How can I tell the news to my two fat friends without hurting their feelings?

FAT-FREE WEDDING

DEAR FAT-FREE: You can't. And if you are that hung up on having uniformly slim bridesmaids, hire professional models. You've made your commitments. Stick with them.

DEAR ABBY: My husband is a mail carrier, and I'm sure very few people know what their mailmen have to contend with. For example: With the crime rate so high, many people keep mean dogs to protect their property. That's fine, but these dogs should be tied up so they can't attack deliverymen.

My husband averages about one bite a week from dogs whose owners claim they "never bite anyone, but like to make a lot of noise."

Another problem: The mail carrier is charged for all postage due on mail on his route, and if the customer doesn't reimburse him, the money comes out of the mailman's pocket.

You may say, "Two or three cents isn't all that much," but my husband has over 300 stops to make some days, and it all adds up.

Care to comment?

PHOENIX WIFE

DEAR WIFE: I am informed that mail carriers are not obligated to deliver mail at homes where watchdogs are allowed to run loose.

As for postage-due mail: True, the carrier is charged for all postage-due mail on his route. He leaves the mail and an envelope stating the amount due, and if the customer doesn't reimburse him, he's out of luck.

Plans Are Complete For Parade

Plans are virtually complete for the Murray Rotary Club's Christmas Parade
Saturday, Dec. 6, according to Rev. David Roos, general parade chairman and pastor of the First Christian Church.

The parade, which will herald the beginning of the Christmas Season in Murray, also will spotlight the initial arrival of Santa Claus and the appearance in Murray of the four-unit Fisher Price Circus Train which was seen by millions on television last year in Macy's
Thanksgiving Parade in New York.

The theme of this year's parade is "Christmas Stories," and cash prizes will be awarded for the best floats. A number of bands headed by the Murray State University Thoroughbreds and the nationally-recognized Tiger band from Murray High School will be in the line of march, scheduled to start at 2 p.m. from Main and 10th Streets.

Roos calls this year's parade "the biggest and the best yet" in the four years the Rotary Club has been sponsoring the major activity opening the local Christmas Season.

The Fisher-Price Circus Train

A highlight of the Rotary Club's Christmas parade Saturday, Dec. 6, will be the appearance in Murray of the four-unit Fisher-Price Circus Train, seen by millions on Television last year in Macy's Thanksgiving Day parade in New York.

The life-size train is modeled after the 991 Circus Train toy made by Fisher-Price Toys, and was built by maintenance personnel at the company's East Aurora, N. Y., plant for the Macy parade.

It is being flown to Murray from East Aurora through the efforts of Roy Kain, manager of the Fisher-Price plant in Murray, to participate in the Christmas parade, the fourth sponsored by the local Rotarians and which will herald the arrival of Santa Claus to officially open the Christmas season in Murray.

The train will be accompanied by 17 employees of the Fisher-Price plant in East Aurora who will appear with it in the parade dressed as the animals which are a part of the basic Circus Train toy — an elephant, monkey, giraffe, a lion and others.

"There is no doubt that the Circus Train will be a highlight of our parade this year," said Rev. David Roos, general parade chairman and pastor of the First Christian Church.

The theme of this year's parade is "Christmas Stories," and cash prizes will be awarded for the best floats.

Mayfield's Bill Hubbard Passes Polygraph Test In UK Drug Case

By BOB COOPER
AP Sports Writer
LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — A lie-detector test has indicated that one of last fall's University of Kentucky football signees was telling the truth when he said he saw other team members use drugs, police say.

Bill Hubbard, 19, now in a Western Kentucky jail on drug charges, implicated Kentucky football players in the use of marijuana and cocaine, police said.

Police did not reveal which players, though they said Hubbard had named those he claimed were involved.

Hubbard was arrested Nov. 13, after Mayfield, Ky., police said they found him in possession of $15,000 worth of cocaine.

Lexington police said they went to Mayfield shortly after that and administered a polygraph test to Hubbard.

Two sources at the Lexington

Police Department said Tuesday the polygraph test indicated Hubbard "was telling the truth" when he said he had seen one player use cocaine and had seen a number of players smoke marijuana.

The polygraph test was conducted by officer James Young, who said the information learned "was really nothing we didn't already know."

Official police sources declined to comment on the test, but the results were disclosed by some high-ranking members of the force.

The university announced almost two weeks ago that it was conducting its own investigation into possible violations of NCAA rules or student code regulations.

University President Otis Singletary said Lexington police had provided information they obtained in an investigation of a kidnap murder case in which a former Kentucky player is a defendant.

Elmore Stephens, 23, Louisville, a tight end on last year's team; John Bishop, 22, Louisville, a former team manager, and Robert Channels, 23, Lexington, are charged with kidnapping and murder in the death of Luron Taylor, 24, Lexington.

According to his wife, Taylor was abducted at gunpoint by four men from in front of his Lexington home Oct. 11. His body was found 10 days later in the Ohio River near Louisville and an autopsy indicated he had been strangled.

Graves County Atty. Benjamin Lookofsky said he asked Lexington police to talk to Hubbard after Hubbard mentioned "a current drug case going on in Lexington."

"I had been reading about the case in the newspapers and I offered them (Lexington police) the information I had," Lookofsky said.

Hubbard, 6-foot-7 and 233 pounds, played football at Mayfield High and was a member of the Associated Press Kentucky High School All State football team in 1974. He was signed to a grant in aid at Kentucky to begin last fall.

However, Mayfield sources said Hubbard remained in Lexington only about two weeks. Kentucky's sports information director, Russell Rice, said Tuesday he never recalled seeing Hubbard at a practice session.

Kentucky Coach Fran Curci was out of town and unavailable for comment. Assistant coach Dan Leal said he'd been away from Lexington on recruiting missions when practice started and wasn't familiar with Hubbard's reasons for leaving campus.

Ledger & Times Sports Writer
Few persons would label the Calloway County Lakers "opportunists" after last night's 69-61 loss to Dawson Springs in the Jeffrey Gymnasium home opener before a relatively small crowd.

Down by 14 at one point early in the final quarter, the Lakers steadily whittled away at the visitors margin, but seemingly for every good effort they accomplished, another opportunity either ticked away on the clock or the scoreboard.

For example: —The visiting Panthers failed to score during 5:31 of the final period.

—DSHS Coach Norman Manasco was hit with a technical after protesting violently a similar call on Panther senior forward Kenny Smith.

And the results: —Calloway Co. scored exactly the same number of points, 16, as did their generous visitors during the final eight minutes.

—After cutting their deficit to 63-61 with 1:05 to go when junior guard Tommy Futrell connected on two of three free throws following the technical bing, the Lakers were charged with no less than four fouls and two turnovers.

"We gave them a couple of pretty good shots near the end," said CCHS Coach David King, "but at the same time, we had a couple of good ones ourselves."

"We cannot afford ever to slack up at a time like that with the height which we're working with. The 1-2-1 press which we went into to start our rally requires us to keep the pressure on...and we didn't," he said.

Dawson Springs, now 3-2, did not rout the Lakers in the early goings as they trailed throughout the opening period until strongman center Tim Robinson bulled under the basket to slap in the deadlocking 10-10 lay-up. Calloway responded with a pair of quick scores by Futrell and Mike Wells to led 14-10 at the first buzzer.

The Panthers of the Second Region struck back with ties at 22, 24, 26, 28 and 30-all before finally clawing out a single bucket edge on another tip-in by Robinson with just under a minute left in the half. A foul shot, steal, and a short jumper by 5-8 senior guard Neal Shipp put the visitors on top by their widest margin to date, 35-30.

Then Senior Laker center Don McCuiston canned a wide open lay-up with 33 seconds remaining before senior Greg Byers did the same thing to cut the Panthers margin to a single point, 35-34, at the halftime horn. Senior Laker guard David Williams, who led CCHS with 20 markers for the night in a solid effort, topped all his teammates after the first two periods with his five buckets.

CCHS began looking like to was heading for its third defeat in as many contests in the middle of the third period when it trailed by eight, 49-41, after being in a deadlock of 39-all some three minutes before.

But Futrell connected on the top end of a bonus situation after being fed a perfect pass downcourt by Wells and then fouled. A Panther drew a technical on the play for offering his comments on the idea...and Futrell went back to the line. He missed.

Then Coach Manasco offered his thoughts. Technical number two.

Futrell connected and suddenly CCHS was within 49-45 after Wells popped in a 10-foot jumper on the inbounds play a second later.

The visitors added a pair of jumpers for breathing room before junior forward Tim Calton gave them their first 10-point edge, 55-45. Calloway managed only two more scores during the next three minutes while Dawson Springs tacked on three and enjoyed a 61-49 spread.

Coach King whooped for a time-out and the Lakers emerged in the 1-2-1 press which gave the Panthers fits for nearly five minutes.

Williams canned three jumpers in the drive, Futrell got two steals and a bucket, while forward Terry Beane zeroed in on a long arching shot, all of which cut the DSHS advantage to a mere four, 63-59.

Just when the magic was needed the most, however, the Lakers fell back. Once they took three shots and came up with no points to waste an outstanding Futrell steal and a Byers' save.

Dawson Springs called time with 1:18 showing to talk things over. A second later Smith fouled Williams on a rebound struggle and earned his technical.

Futrell hit the first shot, missed the second, and was awarded another when the Panther coach was still making noises on the sideline. He connected to make it 63-61.

Wells fouled Smith, who hit both shots, before Futrell struggled with Shipp for a loose ball and was charged with his fifth personal.

The Panthers got a point more, but Shipp missed his second shot to make it 66-61. With eight seconds showing, Wells fouled again on a desperate lunge for the ball and Robinson added another marker to the visitors' total.

When the buzzer sounded, Beane was charged with a personal against Robinson, but evidently Coach Manasco still felt strongly about his team's earlier infractions as he stormed to official Dennis Jackson.

Robinson shot his two shots with the majority of the Panther squad and crowd on the floor cheering as the visitors collected their final two points in a bizarre fashion.

"It was not a good effort," Coach King said afterwards of his team, "but I don't feel that we got any breaks as far as the officiating goes and the two technicals were not necessarily the turning point. We just missed the opportunities we should have used."

The Lakers, who face the Marshall County Marshals at home next Tuesday evening, outshot the Panthers by hitting on 28 of 55 field goal attempts for a 51 per cent figure. DSHS showed a percentage of 32 by making 32 of 93 bucket attempts.

Sensing The News

By ANTHONY HARRIGAN
Executive Vice President
United States Industrial Council

TODAY'S TOPIC: CANADA'S POSTAL STRIKE

HARRIGAN

No country is more important to the United States than its next door neighbor, Canada. What happens in Canada is of immense significance to the United States. Yet Americans pay inadequate attention to Canadian affairs. In the long run, they cannot afford to ignore developments in the great nation to the north.

Certainly, Americans should scrutinize economic and social developments in Canada—the most significant of which at this time is the strike by Canadian postal workers. This tragic strike is a threat to Canada's economic well-being and causes untold hardship and inconvenience to millions of Canadians and their friends and business partners across the border.

The nationwide strike was called by the Canadian Union Postal Workers. Officials of the union have rejected an extraordinarily generous pay increase of 38 per cent.

Ordinary Canadians are very bitter about the high-handed, irresponsible tactics employed by the union leaders. These strike leaders, The Toronto Sun said in a recent editorial, are "supported by radicals who don't like the democratic system and don't care a fig for the welfare of their fellow workers." With the postal strike causing more and more distress, the government apparently is beginning to take a tough stand. The Sun says the Canadian government will not fall into the trap of legislating workers back into post offices, noting "that would be fuel for the Maoist, Revolutionary Marxist and militant minority."

What is it the bosses of the postal union hope to achieve? Fraser Robertson, former business columnist for the Toronto

Globe and Mail, says that there is more to the strike than the union bosses admit. "I suggest," he said in a recent column, "that the union is trying to force the government to accept that unions control the allocation of work opportunities in this country, that unions can dictate who shall work and who shall not work. That goes far beyond job security. That is in fact monopolistic power and other unions will be watching to see if the postal union can get it."

It is important for Canadians that the postal union not get its way. For if the postal union triumphs, the unions may be able to do to Canada what they have done to Great Britain. No greater tragedy could befall the Canadian people.

Canada is rich in natural and human resources. It has a sound governmental system rooted in Anglo-Saxon tradition. With these advantages, Canadians should enjoy an increasingly comfortable and happy existence in life, the rich promise of Canada will never materialize. The Canadian Confederation will suffer the ills that have produced an appalling economic breakdown in Great Britain.

Americans, too, need to observe the Canadian ordeal. The American people, like the Canadian people, have a right to uninterrupted mail service. The shocking postal strike against the public interest in Canada is a reminder that the government and public in the United States must remain alert to similar strike threats on this side of the border.

After a taxicab ride to the ball park, Chester expressed dismay at the size of the bill.

"There must be some mistake," he protested.

The cabby's reply was to push Chester down and kick him in the stomach.

Clearly, Chester had grounds for suing the temperamental driver. But did he also have a valid claim against the taxicab company, which was far more likely to be collectable?

When he filed a damage suit, the company argued that it had never authorized the driver to attack anybody. But the court said the company was liable anyhow.

Common carriers, said the court, he protested.

have the affirmative duty to watch over the safety of their passengers.

If you ride a cab or a bus or a trolley, you are entitled to this extra measure of protection. Still, a particular misdeed may be so remote from the employee's line of duty that the company, at least, must be excused.

A bus driver became incensed at a motorist in the adjacent lane. At the next stop light he climbed out of his bus, stepped over to the automobile, and cuffed the motorist on the ear.

This time, the bus company was held not liable. The court said once the driver had left the bus, to quarrel with a non-passenger, he was strictly "on his own."

There are times, too, when a driver has the legal right to get tough. In another case a boisterous drunk, trying to board a bus, was shoved away by the driver. Since he had used no more force than was needed under the circumstances, both he and the company were held blameless.

"The driver had a perfect right to prevent (the drunk) from getting on the bus," said the court, "where he would have likely become a nuisance or caused a disturbance."

Sugar Consumption And Diabetes

By F.J.L. Blassingame, M.D.

BLASSINGAME

The increased consumption of sugar (sucrose) may be the main cause of the upsurge in the number of diabetes.

The average consumption of refined sugar has increased dramatically in the Western industrialized nations during this century, from about 85 pounds per year in 1900 to about 145 pounds per year now. Present trends in eating habits may push the intake of sugar even higher in the near future.

Diabetes mellitus, or sugar diabetes, affects 15 per cent of the adult population, or one person out of every six, due to a combination of genetic tendency and the consumption of sugar. No test is available to predict ahead of the development of diabetes whether a person has inherited a tendency to the disease. Early cases may be detected by certain laboratory tests in measuring the body's blood sugar levels to a large intake of sugar.

Addressing the American Chemical Society and quoted in Science News, researcher A.M. Cohen of the Hadassah Medical School in Jerusalem said, "Eating sucrose can bring on diabetes in the genetically prone person. On the other hand, proper dieting — cutting the consumption of refined sugars, including sucrose, glucose and fructose — down to 5 per cent of total carbohydrates, not 50 — can prevent the onset of diabetes in the genetically prone person."

Cohen and associates studied new Yeminite immigrants who used no sugar in their traditional diet in Yemen, but who, soon after moving to Israel, increased their consumption of sugar to the level of Western Jews. While the incidence of diabetes was low among the Yeminites, within a few years after immigration to Israel, it was as high among them as the other Israelis.

The sweet taste of sugar in food quickly establishes a desire to eat sweets habitually. Therefore, Cohen believes that feeding sugar to infants "is a very bad practice."

Animal studies confirm that the development of diabetes can be adversely affected by sugar intake.

According to the research evidence, it would be wise if we would lessen our consumption of refined sugar and get nourishment from eating more complex carbohydrates, such as starches.

Q: Mrs. E.S. asks whether aspirin can be taken safely during pregnancy.

A: Some studies made in Australia, and recently published, indicate that women who took aspirin regularly during pregnancy — two to 12 aspirin a day — had more complications than pregnant women who did not take aspirin. Complications included hemorrhage, anemia, longer pregnancy and perinatal mortality. An occasional dose of aspirin during pregnancy is probably harmless, but regular doses should be avoided.

Q: Mr. B.L. would like to know if a vaccine is available against "kissing" disease (infectious mononucleosis).

A: Research is underway to prepare a vaccine to prevent or ameliorate infectious mononucleosis, but no such vaccine is available at this time.

HEARTLINE

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Wednesday, Dec. 3, the 337th day of 1975. There are 28 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1967, surgeons at a Cape Town, South Africa hospital reported a successful human heart transplant, the first of its kind.

On this date:

In 1808, Madrid surrendered to French forces under Napoleon.

In 1865, the former Confederate President, Jefferson Davis, was put on trial for treason in the U.S. Circuit Court for Virginia.

In 1894, the Scottish writer, Robert Louis Stevenson, died in Samoa.

In 1944, in World War II, American troops crossed the Saar River in Germany.

In 1962, London was blanketed by one of the worst fogs in years. Scores of people died of sulphur dioxide poisoning before the fog lifted four days later.

In 1964, police at Berkeley arrested 796 University of California students in removing demonstrators from the school administration building.

Bible Thought

Make thy face to shine upon thy servant: save me for thy mercies' sake. Psalm 31:16.

To have a bright and shining face, is to be filled with the brightness of the Almighty. With gladness and joy shall we live our days.

Your Individual Horoscope

FOR THURSDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1975

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 20)

Don't lose confidence in your ability to produce the results you want — even if temporarily stymied. Keep trying. Some dandy advantages on your side.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 to May 21)

The position of Venus now suggests that you stress your innate artistry and create those clever "twists" which make the difference between the so-so and top attainment.

GEMINI (May 22 to June 21)

Mercury continues favorable. A profitable day indicated for those of you who capitalize on your innate imagination and originality. In the personal area, emotions may rise and fall, unless you maintain equilibrium and poise.

CANCER (June 22 to July 23)

Do not sell the opposition short and do heed suggestions from worthwhile sources. You may experience tendencies toward restlessness now. Curb them, and you can attain much.

LEO (July 24 to Aug. 23)

Now you have a chance to display your showmanship; also your gift for being able to come up with a switch in tactics that changes the humdrum into the lively.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 to Sept. 23)

In both business and personal matters, use only time-tested procedures. Don't attempt anything risky. And DON'T try for the unreasonable.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 to Oct. 23)

An encouraging period. Stress your self-confidence, powers of concentration, and be patient for those results which will come more easily if you remain unperturbed.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 23)

You normally aspire to a position of leadership and inspire others with respect for your special abilities. Here is a brand new chance to put over a project in tip-top fashion.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 24 to Dec. 21)

Stimulating influences now foster inventiveness and creativity generally. An excellent period in which to try out new devices and methods, to capitalize on unique ideas.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20)

Excellent planetary influences. You will not have to strain to accomplish now. A good period for building up your potentials, reviving a project previously set aside.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19)

Your gift for capitalizing on your talents, yet keeping yourself in the background, can boost your gains many fold.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20)

You may be going through a period of disinterest, thereby making errors through miscalculation or insufficient thought. Be careful!

YOU BORN TODAY are truly a "free spirit" — rebelling at convention and orthodox but, nevertheless, curbing your instincts and sticking to any job you have started until it is finished — thoroughly and well.

All this because your passion for perfection is as strong as your love of freedom and hatred for the tedious. You are an extremely versatile individual and, according to your inclinations and education, of course, could succeed in almost any career of your choosing. Sagittarians will make able business executives, lawyers, physicians, writers, journalists, musicians, dramatists, critics and entertainers. Birthdate of: Maria Callas, operatic prima donna.

William Kenton: From Teenage Worker To Speaker Of The House

GILBERTSVILLE, Ky. (AP) — William Kenton has climbed from teenage Democratic Party worker to speaker of the Kentucky House, but says he has "no thoughts about political office in the future."

"There is too much to do in the next two years," said Kenton, who was elected Monday as House speaker for the 1976 General Assembly, ousting two-term speaker Norbert Blume, D-Louisville.

It was 20 years earlier, at the age of 14, that Kenton organized the first Young Democrats club in Mason County — then had to resign as a member when he was declared too young.

Kenton, a big bluff attorney with a bass voice, discussed his background and goals briefly during a lull in the pre-legislative conference at Kentucky Dam Village State Park.

He said it is never too early to get into politics, and recalled that even with his disappointment at age 14, he became president of the Young Democrats group a few years later.

"I found out I had politics in my blood," he said.

Kenton was an avid supporter of former Gov. A.B. (Happy) Chandler, and while still in high school during the 1950s was asked by Chandler to participate in a presentation of an important bond issue at Frankfort.

"My school said I could go, but could not have an excused absence that day," Kenton said. "When I told the governor of my predicament, he arranged to have the signing of the bond issue in Maysville."

The new speaker attended the University of Virginia, but delayed his graduation in 1963 to campaign for Chandler in his governor's race, later obtained his degree from the University of Kentucky and graduated from the UK law school.

Kenton jumped in again when Chandler made another unsuccessful race for governor in 1967 — that time as the "brain trust" for Chandler in something called "a blueprint for progress," which was promoted as a grand plan for curing many Kentucky problems.

One phase was advocacy of a Homestead Amendment, eventually approved by voters as a part of the state constitution.

When Chandler supported Republican Louie Nunn for governor in 1967, Kenton said he departed from Chandler politically but "we always have been personal friends."

Kenton was elected to a House seat for the 1970 session.

Kenton said he had been receiving telephone calls for months urging him to run for speaker, though he was vague about identifying the callers.

He said he told well-wishers, "it is inappropriate to discuss" the matter until after the general election.

He said Blume has been "my good friend for a long time," and that both were trying to upgrade the legislature.

Kenton said when he found out a week ago that Blume, "for various reasons," could not win another term, he decided to make the race. Though strongly backed by the Democratic administration, Kenton would not go into details on the backing.

He said the culmination was Sunday night about 7 p.m. when Blume appeared at a cottage as Kenton was leaving and said, "Let's go upstairs and talk."

Less than an hour later, Blume's fate was sealed, Kenton was the new speaker, and he was already planning for the coming session.

Kenton has acquired a reputation as an indefatigable chairman of the Interim Committee on Cities, which he has taken all over the state to hear local problems in some 70 appearances during the past year.

"Going to the home town avoids the sense of alienation that people feel about state government," he said. "When they come to Frankfort, they tend to freeze up in awe. When you go to them, it's much more informal and informational."

The speaker said his thrust would be to increase the importance of legislative committees, to the point where they have permanent offices for the chairman and staff, and are perhaps independently funded.

Currently, committees are dependent on the operations of their parent Legislative Research Commission.

Congressmen Invite Bailor To Explain Postal Policies

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some members of Congress, angry that Postmaster General Benjamin F. Bailor has taken major steps recently without consulting them, have invited Bailor to explain his postal policies.

One House subcommittee called Bailor to testify today and another subcommittee has called him to testify next Wednesday.

"He has to decide if he wants to have friends in Congress or not," said George B. Gould, a staff member of the House Post Office Committee. "If he does, then he's got to consult with Congress."

Gould said Bailor is cutting back on small post offices, freezing hiring right in time for the Christmas season and talking about eliminating Saturday delivery and special delivery service.

"It's time for him to start telling Congress about such things ahead of time," Gould said.

Postal Service officials, who declined to be quoted by name, acknowledged that key members of Congress are miffed by Bailor's recent actions.

"They're really hot about the small post offices," one Postal Service source said.

The two subcommittees held joint hearings in September on whether many small post offices should be eliminated.

Overwhelming opposition to the closings was expressed, especially from members of Congress. But Bailor went ahead last month with a new policy that is expected to result in the closing of thousands of small post offices.

Bailor has explained the recent moves as an attempt to pull the Postal Service out of its financial crisis. The Postal Service is losing nearly $7 million a day.

Bailor launched the economy drive after the House rejected in October a committee-approved provision to increase the congressional subsidy of the Postal Service. In addition, the House voted to increase congressional supervision of the Postal Service and to limit the postal rate increase planned for Dec. 28.

The new rate will boost the cost of a first-class letter from 10 cents to 13 cents.

The Senate appears unlikely to act on the House-passed measure that would hold the rate to 12 cents. Furthermore, three lawsuits challenging the boost are unlikely to be decided by the Dec. 28 effective date. Meanwhile, the Post Service is printing the new 13-cent stamps.

Indonesian Train Hijackers Open Fire On Mediator In Holland Today

BEILEN, The Netherlands (AP) — Five Indonesians holding about 50 hostages aboard a hijacked train stranded in northern Holland opened fire on a would-be mediator today and released a Chinese cook with new demands.

More than 150 armed men ringed the train but kept out of range. Two persons were killed aboard the train shortly after the hijacking, and the men in the cordon made no attempt to get aboard.

The Chinese cook brought a message demanding an engineer for the train, food and drink for 55 persons, a bullhorn and medicine for an epileptic and a diabetic, officials said.

The hijackers opened fire on an official who drove toward the train in an attempt to open negotiations. One shot hit within 10 yards of the car, and the driver pulled back.

The Indonesians released four persons shortly after they took over the train, and three others escaped by jumping off. But police said a report that two other hostages jumped off and hid apparently was incorrect.

The Dutch government rejected an earlier demand from the hijackers that they be given safe conduct out of the country with some of their hostages. Justice Minister Dries Van Agt said Tuesday night that "under no circumstances" would the hijackers be allowed to leave the country with hostages.

Armed with pistols and a hunting rifle, the Indonesians seized the four-coach local train Tuesday, killed the engineer and another man and took the passengers hostage, officials reported.

The train was standing on the track in an open field, ringed by police, marine commandos and army marksmen. But they stayed 650 yards from the train because the Indonesians were "shooting at anything that moves," a police spokesman said.

Officials said the gang attached dynamite to the train and threatened to blow it up unless their demands were met.

The hijackers were reported to be militant exiles from the South Molucca or Spice Islands, the scene of an unsuccessful revolt against Indonesia in 1960. It was believed that they were trying to call attention to the South Moluccan independence movement.

Three women released from the train with a 3-year-old child shortly after the hijacking brought the police a demand for transportation to Amsterdam's Schiphol Airport, 90 miles away.

Carroll Sharply Criticizes McGovern For Busing Speech

WASHINGTON (AP) — Kentucky Gov. Julian Carroll, in a national television appearance, has sharply criticized South Dakota Sen. George McGovern for his speech in Louisville defending court-ordered school busing.

Carroll said on the NBC "Today" show Tuesday that school busing "is not the answer to achieving an equal educational opportunity for all of our children."

McGovern, in a speech Nov. 21 at the National Democratic Issues Conference, strongly defended busing for school desegregation and pledged to repudiate any Democratic presidential candidate who opposes it.

"I believe just the opposite," said Carroll, who had flown to Washington Monday night to appear on the television show.

He said a presidential candidate "who recognizes that busing is a destructive element in achieving equal educational opportunity, rather than a helpful element, will be the one that will be supported by the American people."

More Leaf, Less Money In Second Week Of Burley

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Kentucky farmers put more tobacco up for sale but buyers put up less money as the second week of burley auctions progressed.

Twenty-seven of Kentucky's 30 markets held sales Tuesday. Growers across the state sold 21,365,643 pounds of burley, up from 21,223,424 the day before.

The average price statewide was $106.51 per hundred pounds, down from Monday's average of $109.70.

Lexington, the largest burley market, easily topped the others in volume, selling 3,030,875 pounds for an average of $107.97 per hundred.

Carrollton, Glasgow, Horse Cave, Maysville and Shelbyville also topped the million-pound level by substantial amounts.

Volume was lowest at Mayfield, where farmers sold 201,575 pounds for an average of $106.43 per hundred pounds.

Morehead had the highest prices, averaging $112.32 per hundred pounds on volume of 681,059 pounds.

The only market averaging below $100 was London, where 390,449 pounds of burley brought an average of $97.74 per hundred pounds.

Auction
Friday, December 12 - 10 a.m.
Saturday, December 13 - 10 a.m.

Sale location is corner of Mineral Wells and Russell St., Paris, Tenn. (across from Paris Square Shopping Center) in the buildings of the Russell Clay Co.

Please Note: Mrs. Mary Sue Russell has sold her entire collection of antiques - primitives - collectables - dolls and furniture she and her late husband had put together over the last 20 years. We feel it will take 6 or 8 days of auctions to sell this collection and these are the first 2 sale days. Following is a list of what we will be selling these first 2 sales:

DOLLS: The dolls will sell on Sat., Dec. 13 only - Mrs. Russell has an impressive collection of dolls (approx. 50): Shirley Temple (1934 era good); German Dolls - French Dolls (some with "kid" leather bodies - various sizes - old dolls); Bisque Dolls; China Bodied Pin Cushion Dolls; China Bodied "Brush" Dolls; Florodora-Kid Bodied German Doll (good); China Head Dolls (some with black hair, some blonde, some have "kid" leather bodies, all sizes, most have china arms and feet, some have older "stuffed" limbs); "Wax Over" Dolls (good condition); Collectors Dolls (like "paper mache", handmade dolls, etc.); doll dishes; doll furniture; doll parts; doll clothes. (It is impossible to properly list this collection as it should be just be with us on Sat. Dec. 13) (Many of these dolls priced in the hundreds of dollars each).

ANTIQUES-PRIMITIVES: Metal "tea" pots; old knives; axes; round oak table (54" plus extra leaves - perfect condition); oak buffet (nice); pie safe; kitchen chairs; showcase; bedsteads; oak dresser and chest; camel back trunk; wood burning stove (small) Mantle: toys (old toys-metal, etc. and newer toys); Wood Tools (Mr. Russell collected wooden work tools and he had an impressive collection, planes, edgers, drawing knives etc.); collectors bottles (liquor: Beams-Brooks etc., plus all types of other bottles-hundreds); wood barrels; old tables; corn sheller; crocks; old lamps; old hand tools; plows (old); metal implement seats; old scales; old lanterns; cream separators; metal wheels; Anvil; old pitchers - cuts - bowls; platters; old fruit jars; old records; plus much, much, much more.
POTTERY: Yard pieces; flower pots (all sizes); hangers; foot stones; statues, etc.

It is IMPOSSIBLE to list the thousands of items, we have to sell. As stated it is going to take 6 sales or more. We have just tried to keep a good balance for each 2 day selling period (like furniture, etc.), so each sale will have something for everyone.

Sale will be held under TENT - rain or shine (or snow!). Lunch available both days. Terms and conditions announced at sale time. So come be with us for 2 good days of auction: Thank You.

Mrs. Winstead Dies Tuesday; Mother Of Mrs. Greene Wilson

Mrs. Rinda Simmons Winstead of Route One, Dresden, Tenn., mother of Mrs. Greene (Adele) Wilson of Murray, died Tuesday morning at the Weakley County Nursing Home, Dresden.

She was 90 years of age and the widow of Julius Winstead. Born October 25, 1885, in Weakley County, Tenn., she was the daughter of the late Goodin Tucker and Miranda Jane Winford Tucker.

Mrs. Winstead is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Wilson of Murray, Mrs. Glen (Norma) Foster of Atlanta, Ga., Mrs. Eva Griffith of Troy, Mich., and Mrs. Norman (Velma) Cooke of Nashville, Tenn.; three stepdaughters, Mrs. Helen Penecost of Dresden, Tenn., Mrs. Lydia Rogers of Fulton, Mich., and Mrs. Katherine Laws of Detroit, Mich.; four stepsons, Carmon Winstead of Fulton, W. D. Winstead of Dukedom, Tenn., and Robert and Arden Winstead, both of Dresden, Tenn.; one brother, Newman Tucker of California; eight grand children; twelve great grandchildren.

The deceased was a member of the Blooming Grove Primitive Baptist Church near Palmersville, Tenn., where funeral services will be held Thursday at one p. m. with Elder Ben Bowlin officiating. Burial will be in the church cemetery with the arrangements by the Bowling Funeral Home, Dresden, Tenn., where friends may call until the funeral hour.

Funeral Thursday For Mrs. Graves

The funeral for Mrs. Mary Graves will be held Thursday at two p. m. at the chapel of the Chaney Funeral Home, Hickman, with burial to follow in a cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home.

Mrs. Graves, age 45, died Tuesday at eight a. m. at the Baptist Memorial Baptist Hospital from complications following an acute heart attack and surgery about one week ago.

The deceased was a teacher of business at Caruthersville, Mo., and was a graduate of Murray State University.

Mrs. Graves is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Mary Graves Roberts, Hickman, one son, Freddie Graves, Barlow, and her parents, Fred and Jewel Evans Lassiter of Hickman. Milburn Evans of Murray Route Six is a surviving uncle.

Tim Miller Named Murray Country Club President

NEW COUNTRY CLUB PRESIDENT: Dr. Tim Miller, 821 North 20th Street, third from the right, is congratulated by retiring President Richard Knight after being named Monday night to serve as president of the Murray Country Club during the coming year of 1976. Shown, from the left, are: Dr. Dick Stout and Mrs. Betty Jo Purdom, new directors; Knight; Dr. George Oakley, the new vice-president; Miller; Dr. Joe Rexroat, new director and newly-elected secretary; and J. H. Shackelford, who was named to his 20th consecutive term as the club treasurer. Miller and the other new officers will assume their responsibilities January 1.

Dr. Tim Miller, an assistant professor in the Department of Accounting, Finance and Real Estate at Murray State University, has been named president of the Murray Country Club for the coming year. He will assume the office January 1, succeeding Richard Knight.

Other officers elected Monday night at one of the shortest meetings of the club's board of directors on record were:

Dr. George Oakley, local dentist, vice-president; Dr. Joe Rexroat, also a local dentist, secretary; and J. H. Shackelford, local accountant who will be serving his 20th consecutive year as treasurer of the club.

Also present at the meeting and participating in the voting were three new members of the board, elected last month: Dr. Dick Stout, Mrs. Betty Jo Purdom and Rexroat. They succeed Mrs. Lois Keller, Mrs. Venela Sexton and Johnny McCage, whose three-year terms are expiring.

A native of Elizabethtown, Miller has been a member of the club since 1967, and is a 5-handicap golfer. Currently the vice-president of the club, he holds two degrees from Murray State, having received his undergraduate degree in 1966 and his master's in 1967, and a doctorate from the University of Arkansas.

He is married to the former Patsy Purdom of Murray and they have two children, Anne, 7, and Mark, 4. They live at 821 North 20th Street.

In other action Monday night, the board approved the family membership application of James T. and Patricia Thompson, 1706 Plainview Drive. Dr. Thompson is chairman of the Department of Agriculture at Murray State University.

The club's next major activity is its annual Christmas Season Open House. To be hosted by members of the board of directors along with their wives and husbands, the affair is scheduled for Sunday, Dec. 14, from 4 to 7 p.m.

Loan Plan For NYC Passes First Senate Test Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford's $2.3 billion loan plan for New York City passed its first Senate test today as opponents lost overwhelmingly in an attempt to send it back to committee.

By a vote of 57 to 23, the Senate voted to table a motion by Sen. Jesse Helms, R-N.C., to send the loan bill back to the Banking Committee.

The vote set the stage for final action by the Senate on Friday.

It came after 21 senators petitioned to block a filibuster against the plan, approved by a 10-vote margin in the House. Backers of the measure hoped for final passage before New York faces its next default deadline Dec. 11.

Helms objected to the petition for cloture, saying he wanted to debate it. But such a petition is not debatable under Senate rules, which permit a vote on the petition two days after it is filed.

Senate leaders say they have the 60 votes need to approve the petition.

The House gave approval

Tuesday to the measure on a vote of 213 to 203, with 38 Republicans and 175 Democrats voting in favor of the aid plan.

Sen. James B. Allen, D-Ala., said he would filibuster the bill when it reaches the Senate, but he admitted he thinks aid supporters will have the votes to invoke cloture and shut off the talkathon.

A filibuster could delay action on the bill because it takes at least two days to shut off debate. Opponents of the aid plan conceded after the House vote that backers of the bill have the momentum to get the measure through the Senate.

House approval of the bill brought relieved sighs from New York officials.

Mayor Abraham Beame said the vote shows "New York City still has friends and supporters around the country" and voiced doubt that the city would again have to ask the federal government for aid.

New York Gov. Hugh Carey said he was grateful for the vote and said it "has given us a chance to show the people of the United States that whatever have been our errors ... we are putting our affairs in order ... and will redeem ourselves."

But among the House opponents of the measure there was little enthusiasm about the prospects of New York remaining solvent.

Rep. Robert Bauman, R-Md., said both Ford and the Republican party had been hurt by the aid plan. "The President will be damaged because first he took a position we shouldn't do this, then in three weeks made a complete turnabout. He made both sides angry," he said.

Bauman predicted New York City will not balance its budget and correct its own fiscal problems, adding, "I predict in a matter of months they will be back ... the American taxpayer will be socked."

Rep. Thomas L. Ashley, D-Ohio, chairman of the committee that drew up one New York aid bill, agreed he saw a chance that New York would return for more help, but based the prospects on the economy.
